

Biography: Elizabeth Msimang

Elizabeth Msimang is a multi-skilled, pro-active and hands-on HR professional with a well-balanced mix between people, business background and analytical skills. She is known as a collaborative, integrative and critical thinker, always striving for innovative ways to solve complex human capital problems using HR analytics, policies and processes.

As a Transformation Manager @ Distell, Elizabeth shows up passionately and consistently to be a catalyst of holistic transformation. She epitomizes diversity, inclusion and belonging.

On a personal front, she is a wife and a mother. Elizabeth loves tranquil outdoor environments and riding quad bikes.

